

ART CRITICISM AND CREATIVE MARKETS

ACADEMIC

Grade 11/12

Curriculum Guide

ART CRITICISM AND CREATIVE MARKETS

Prerequisite:

Any of the following:

Creative Industries - Applied and Traditional Arts

Creative Industries - Literary Arts

Creative Industries - Media Arts

Creative Industries - Visual Arts

Course Description:

This elective strengthens learners' critical, cultural, and entrepreneurial literacies in the arts. The course develops learners' ability to analyze and evaluate creative works using formal analysis and aesthetic theories while situating art within its socio-cultural, historical, and economic contexts. Learners examine how audiences, markets, and platforms influence artistic meaning and production and apply their understanding through the organization of a small-scale art fair for a defined community.

Elective: Academic

Time Allotment: 80 hours for one term

Content Standard:

- The learners demonstrate critical understanding of the socio-cultural, historical, and economic contexts that shape the production and distribution of various art disciplines, particularly visual arts, media arts, applied arts, literary arts, and traditional arts, as reflected in art criticism, review practices, career opportunities, and entrepreneurial pathways.

Performance Standard:

- The learners can apply principles of art criticism and an understanding of creative markets in curating and organizing a small-scale art fair that presents creative works for a defined audience, demonstrating informed selection, presentation, and communication of artistic ideas within relevant cultural and market contexts.

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
The learners... 1. analyze the role of formal analysis and aesthetic theories in developing critical reviews of creative works in visual, literary, media, applied, and traditional arts;	I. Art Criticism A. Definition and Importance of Art Criticism 1. Importance of Art Criticism for Artists, Audiences, and the Creative Industries 2. Who Can Be an Art Critic B. Formal Analysis 1. Description 2. Analysis 3. Interpretation 4. Evaluation C. Aesthetic Theories and Judgment 1. Imitationalism 2. Formalism 3. Emotionalism D. Components of Effective Art 1. Composition 2. Technical Skill 3. Expression E. Critiquing Art Across Domains Toward Organic Unity 1. Subject, Themes, and Inspirations 2. Form and Structure 3. Content and Composition 4. Aesthetics, Styles, Conventions, and Experimentations
2. examine how art markets, platforms, and entrepreneurial pathways influence the creation and distribution of art in socio-economic and cultural contexts; and	II. Various Art Markets A. Brief Overview of the Creative Industries B. Venues, Platforms, and Channels 1. Collectors and Patrons

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
	2. Art Dealers and Merchant C. Career Opportunities and Entrepreneurial Pathways 1. Literary Arts Careers 2. Traditional Arts Careers 3. Media Arts Careers 4. Applied Arts Careers 5. Teaching and Art Education 6. Entrepreneurship and Business Ownership D. Art and the Economy 1. The Role of Art in the Economy 2. The Value of Arts and Culture 3. Supply and Demand 4. Supply and Value Chains in the Creative Industries
3. organize a small-scale art fair that effectively communicates its message or purpose to a defined audience.	III. Organizing a Small-Scale Art Fair A. Concept and Curation 1. Identifying a Theme, Message, or Purpose 2. Curating Artworks, Literary Texts, and Performances B. Audience and Market Considerations 1. Identifying Target Audience 2. Considering Audience Needs and Market Context C. Exhibition Design and Production 1. Overall Programming of the Art Fair 2. Layout and Presentation of Artworks and Texts 3. Installation and Setup 4. Planning Performance Spaces D. Promotion and Communication 1. Promoting the Art Fair

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
	2. Communicating the Artistic Message E. Implementation and Evaluation 1. Presenting the Exhibition 2. Gathering Feedback and Reflection

GLOSSARY

Art Criticism	is the process of analyzing, interpreting, and evaluating creative works using formal analysis and aesthetic theories within their socio-cultural and historical contexts
Creative work	an original product of human imagination and skill that expresses ideas through art, literature, music, design, or other creative forms and is protected by intellectual property laws.
Curation	refers to the process of selecting, organizing, and presenting creative works based on a theme, purpose, or message for an audience
Emotionalism	an aesthetic theory that evaluates art based on its ability to evoke emotions, feelings, or moods in the audience.
Formal analysis	refers to the method of examining the visual and structural elements of a work (such as composition, color, line, texture, and form) to understand how it is constructed and communicates meaning
Aesthetic Theories and Judgment	frameworks used to analyze, interpret, evaluate, and form reasoned judgments about works of art.
Imitationalism	an aesthetic theory that evaluates art based on how accurately it represents reality.
Formalism	an aesthetic theory that evaluates art based on its formal elements, such as composition, structure, style, line, color, shape, texture, and form.
Creative Market	the demand for, exchange of, and systems supporting creative works and services.
Small-Scale Art Fair	is an organized exhibition event that presents selected creative works to a defined audience, usually within a limited scope such as a school or community setting.
Target Audience	refers to the specific group of people for whom the art fair or exhibition is intended.

REFERENCES

- Galveston Independent School District. (n.d.). Feldman model for art criticism. <https://www.gisd.org/departments/fine-arts/feldman-model-for-art-criticism>
- Human Kinetics. (n.d.). Feldman model of criticism. <https://us.humankinetics.com/blogs/excerpt/feldman-model-of-criticism>
- Ocvirk, O. G., Stinson, R. E., Wigg, P. R., Bone, R. O., & Cayton, D. L. (2013). Art fundamentals: Theory and practice (12th ed.). McGraw-Hill Companies.
- Philippines. (2022, July 27). Republic Act No. 11904: Philippine Creative Industries Development Act. LawPhil Project. https://lawphil.net/statutes/repacts/ra2022/ra_11904_2022.html
- Ragans, R. (2005). The elements of art. In Art Talk (5th ed., pp. 24–53). Glencoe/McGraw-Hill. <https://digitalpathwaysart.weebly.com/uploads/9/8/2/3/9823286/chap02.pdf>
- UNCTAD, & UNDP Special Unit for South-South Cooperation. (2010). Creative economy report 2010. Creative economy: A feasible development option. United Nations. https://unctad.org/system/files/official-document/ditctab20103_en.pdf