

FILIPINO IDENTITY THROUGH THE ARTS

ACADEMIC

Grade 11/12
Curriculum Guide

FILIPINO IDENTITY THROUGH THE ARTS

Prerequisite: None

Course Description:

This course explores Philippine indigenous and traditional arts as repositories of memory and collective human experience in their specific historical, cultural, political, economic, and social contexts. The significance of geographic and cultural communities as sites of art production, as well as their value in constructing Filipino identity and fostering nationalism is highlighted. Learners will critically integrate the significant aspects of these indigenous and traditional expressions into their art-making practices to promote cultural continuity and serve as bases for meaningful innovations.

Elective: Academic

Time Allotment: 80 hours for one term

Content Standard:

- The learners demonstrate understanding of Philippine indigenous and traditional arts as expressions of worldview, identity, memory, and heritage, and as foundations for cultural continuity and innovation across performing, visual, literary, and architectural forms.

Performance Standard:

- The learners create an integrated artistic production that demonstrates an informed understanding of indigenous and traditional arts, their contexts, and their relevance to contemporary Filipino identity.

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
The learners... 1. Explain how geography, history, and institutions shape worldviews and cultural identity;	A. Definition and components of worldview B. Influence of geography (environment, location, and resources) on cultural practices and traditions C. Influence of historical events and colonization on identity formation D. Role of institutions (family, religion, education, and governance) in shaping values and beliefs E. Core concepts of the Filipino worldview (e.g., kapwa, bayanihan, and respect for elders) as reflected in cultural identity
2. describe the significant features and characteristics of selected Philippine indigenous and traditional arts across performing, visual, literary, and architectural forms;	A. Elements and stylistic features of indigenous and traditional music (instruments, vocal forms, and functions) B. Movement vocabulary and functions of traditional dance C. Structure and performance conventions of traditional theater D. Materials, techniques, symbols, and motifs in indigenous and traditional visual arts E. Forms, themes, and oral traditions in indigenous and traditional literary arts F. Indigenous architectural forms, materials, spatial organization, and symbolism
3. analyze how geographic, historical, cultural, political, economic, and social contexts are reflected in selected art forms;	A. Framework for contextual analysis of artworks B. Historical and socio-political influences in selected works C. Cultural beliefs, rituals, and community practices embedded in art forms D. Indigenous and traditional arts as repositories of collective memory E. Art as documentation of lived experiences and community narratives
4. examine contemporary issues affecting indigenous and traditional arts;	A. Modernization, commercialization, and globalization as threats to continuity B. Cultural appropriation and misrepresentation C. Legal frameworks for heritage protection (Republic Act No. 10066 and related policies) D. Ethical considerations in adapting traditional elements for contemporary use

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
5. evaluate the role of exemplary Filipino artists and community-based culture bearers in safeguarding heritage; and	A. Contributions of National Artists and Gawad sa Manlilikha ng Bayan (GAMABA) awardees to cultural preservation B. Role of community-based culture bearers in sustaining artistic traditions C. Processes of cultural transmission (apprenticeship, oral tradition, and communal practice) D. Sustainability and intergenerational continuity of indigenous and traditional arts
6. design an integrated creative work inspired by indigenous and traditional arts using local materials, processes, and/or digital applications.	A. Concept development grounded in contextual research B. Selection and ethical integration of traditional elements C. Use of local materials, indigenous processes, and/or digital tools D. Production planning and execution E. Presentation, artist statement, and critical reflection

GLOSSARY

Cultural appropriation	the adoption or use of elements from one culture by members of another, often without permission or understanding of their cultural significance behind those elements and in a way that is exploitative and/or disrespectful to the culture itself
Cultural identity	an individual's sense of belonging to a particular culture or group that is formed through shared characteristics such as language, traditions, beliefs, values, and norms passed down from generation to generation.
Cultural traditions	practices, beliefs, and customs that are passed down through generations within a specific community or society.
Heritage	the cultural, historical, and artistic legacy passed down through generations, including both tangible and intangible elements

Innovation	the process of developing and applying new ideas, methods, products, services, or solutions that create a significant positive impact and value
Intangible cultural heritage	the non-physical expressions and practices that embody the traditions, knowledge, and skills of a community and are transmitted orally or through practice across generations, such as rituals, oral traditions, performing arts, traditional craftsmanship techniques, and cultural practices related to nature
Indigenous art	the creative expressions and cultural artifacts produced by the native peoples of a particular region that reflect their latter's unique traditions, histories, and worldviews
Local arts	art forms such as folk dances, music, theater, visual arts, architecture, and other creative expressions deeply rooted in local histories and identities and originating from specific regions, communities, or diverse, cultural groups in the Philippines
Movement vocabulary	the collection of movements and gestures used by dancers or choreographers to express ideas, emotions, and meaning through dance
Performing arts	a field of art that includes vocal and instrumental music, dance, theater, and other art forms that are usually performed before a live audience
Tangible cultural heritage	the collection of physical objects and structures that have cultural, historical, artistic, or scientific significance
Traditional art	an art field that encompasses culturally significant practices and expressions passed down through generations (including crafts, music, dance, and storytelling) that reflect community identities and heritage
Scientific significance	the integration of scientific principles, discoveries, or phenomena to enhance the understanding, creation, and interpretation of art
Worldview	the lens through which people interpret reality and make decisions; a framework for understanding life and the world

REFERENCES

- Aguilar, F. V. (2005). Tracing origins: Ilustrado nationalism and the racial science of migration. Ateneo de Manila University Press.
- Aluit, A. A. (1994). By sword and fire: The destruction of Manila in World War II. National Commission for Culture and the Arts.
- Britannica. (2024). Cultural appropriation. <https://www.britannica.com/topic/cultural-appropriation>
- Cayabyab, R., & Santos, R. (Eds.). (2018). Musika: An essay on Philippine music. Cultural Center of the Philippines.
- Claudio, L. E. (2017). The promise of the nation: Gender, history, and nationalism in contemporary Philippine art. Ateneo de Manila University Press.
- Cohn, J. G. (2024). A critical examination of the recent evolution of B2B sales. IGI Global Scientific Publishing.
- David, R. (2002). Reflections on sociology and Philippine society. University of the Philippines Press.
- Dela Paz, C., & Flores, P. (2014). Sining at lipunan. Sentro ng Wikang Filipino, Unibersidad ng Pilipinas.
- Enriquez, V. G. (1986). Kapwa: A core concept in Filipino social psychology. In V. G. Enriquez (Ed.), Philippine worldview (pp. 6–19). ISEAS Publishing. <https://doi.org/10.1355/9789814379021-005>
- Flores, P. D. (2013). Past peripheral: Curation in Southeast Asia. NUS Museum.
- Kroeber, A. L. (1919/2004). Peoples of the Philippines. University of California Press.
- Kunst, J. R., Lefringhausen, K., & Zagefka, H. (2023). Delineating the boundaries between genuine cultural change and cultural appropriation in majority-group acculturation. International Journal of Intercultural Relations, 97, Article 101911. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.ijintrel.2023.101911>
- Lazo, A. E. G. (2016). Understanding cultural appropriation: Kaloob Philippine Music and Dance Ministry [Unpublished undergraduate thesis, University of the Philippines Manila]. UP Manila Institutional Repository. <http://dspace.cas.upm.edu.ph:8080/xmlui/handle/123456789/1141>
- Maceda, J. (1998). Gongs and bamboo: A panorama of Philippine music instruments. University of the Philippines Press.
- Mojares, R. B. (2001). Brains of the nation: Pedro Paterno, T.H. Pardo de Tavera, Isabelo de los Reyes and the production of modern knowledge. Ateneo de Manila University Press.
- National Commission for Culture and the Arts. (n.d.-a). GAMABA (Gawad sa Manlilikha ng Bayan). <https://ncca.gov.ph/about-culture-and-arts/culture-profile/gamaba/>
- National Commission for Culture and the Arts. (n.d.-b). National artists of the philippines. <https://ncca.gov.ph/about-culture-and-arts/culture-profile/national-artists-of-the-philippines/>

National Commission for Culture and the Arts. (2018). Philippine cultural heritage law (RA 10066): Implementing rules and regulations. NCCA.

Philippines. (2010, March 26). Republic Act No. 10066: National Cultural Heritage Act of 2009. Official Gazette of the Republic of the Philippines. <https://www.officialgazette.gov.ph/2010/03/26/republic-act-no-10066/>

Rafael, V. L. (1993). Contracting colonialism: Translation and Christian conversion in Tagalog society under early Spanish rule. Duke University Press.

Santos, R. P. (2005). Himig at ritwal: Music in Philippine cultural traditions. University of the Philippines Press.

Serrano, S. (2011). Philippine visual arts and indigenous aesthetics. University of Santo Tomas Publishing House.

Smith, L. (2006). Uses of heritage. Routledge.

UNESCO. (2003). Convention for the safeguarding of the intangible cultural heritage. UNESCO Publishing.

UNESCO. (n.d.-a). Cultural traditions. United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization. <https://www.unesco.org/en/query-list/c/cultural-traditions>

UNESCO. (n.d.-b). Performing arts (such as traditional music, dance and theatre). Intangible Cultural Heritage. <https://ich.unesco.org/en/performing-arts-00054>

UNESCO. (n.d.-c). What is intangible cultural heritage? Intangible Cultural Heritage. <https://ich.unesco.org/en/what-is-intangible-heritage-00003>