PHILIPPINE GOVERNANCE (PHILIPPINE POLITICS AND GOVERNANCE)

Prerequisite: None

Course Description:

This course challenges learners to critically examine the structures and principles of governance from an institutional perspective, with an emphasis on democratic values, human rights, and social justice.

Elective: Academic

Time Allotment: 80 hours for one term

Content Standards:

- The learners critically examine the concepts and principles of politics and governance, including the role of political ideologies, the concepts of state and nation, and the significance of the 1987 Constitution in shaping democratic governance, human rights, and the rule of law in the Philippines and the global community.
- The learners explain the implications of the principles of separation of powers, and the importance of public accountability—a cornerstone of democratic governance—on the roles, functions, and powers of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches, as well as Local Government Units (LGUs).

Performance Standards:

- The learners critically analyze real-world political and governance issues by applying key concepts such as power, ideology, the state, and constitutional principles through research-based presentations, debates, or advocacy campaigns that reflect democratic values, human rights, and social justice.
- The learners evaluate current issues and propose informed solutions (or public policies) that promote democratic values, good governance, and national development.
