

ARTS APPRENTICESHIP (LITERARY ARTS)

ACADEMIC

Grade 12

Curriculum Guide

ARTS APPRENTICESHIP

(Literary Arts)

Prerequisites: Filipino Identity Through the Arts, Leadership and Management in the Arts, Art Criticism and Creative Markets

Course Description:

This course provides an intensive period of acquiring, understanding, and developing proficiency in literary arts through hands-on training with literary artists. It aims to enrich the learners' skills in their chosen field emphasizing Filipino artistic cultural values, work ethics and traditions while contributing to local and global creative industries.

Elective: Academic

Time Allotment: 160 hours for one term

Content Standard:

- The learners demonstrate understanding of literary arts production processes, literary genres, professional practices, and ethical standards through apprenticeship experiences within the publishing and print media industry.

Performance Standard:

- The learners demonstrate proficiency in literary arts production and analysis through apprenticeship engagement and creative documentation, reflecting artistic, cultural, and ethical practices in literary arts.

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
The learners... 1. discuss the interdisciplinary roles and responsibilities of an apprentice in the literary arts production;	I. Understanding The Roles and Responsibilities of an Apprentice in the Literary Arts Production: A. Literary arts within the publishing and print media industry B. Professionalism and ethics in literary arts; II. Organizational Requirements for Occupational Health and Safety in the Literary Arts Industry.
2. discuss the different stages of literary arts production;	III. Stages In Literary Arts Production A. Manuscript preparation B. Pitching, contracting, and working with publishers C. Editorial work, designing, and printing D. Distribution, promotion, and advocating yourself as a writer
3. describe existing and emerging literary industries that contribute to the growth of the literary industry in the Philippines; and	IV. Different Literary Productions in the Philippine Context A. Books and bound formats B. Anthologies and collections C. Scripts for theater productions D. Screenplay for film and TV E. Digital media Projects F. Experimental and emerging formats V. Literary Arts as an Industry in the Philippines A. Publishers, productions, and other avenues for the literary arts in the Philippines B. Notable figures across literary genres C. Copyright and registration process D. Government agencies and the writing communities as systems of support

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
4. produce a literary analysis using the literary processes in writing based on understanding of literary genres, elements, and techniques; NOTE FOR IMPLEMENTATION: If the orientation and preparatory competencies are completed within the first weeks of the term, the learners may proceed to in-school or off-school apprenticeship activities, provided that proper supervision and safety guidelines are observed.	VI. Writing Literary Analysis A. Considerations in text selection B. Methodologies in text analysis C. Contextualizing texts within publication nuances and social, cultural, and political contexts D. Strategies in literary analysis
5. demonstrate proficiency, professionalism, cultural, and ethical practices during internship or apprenticeship; and	Apprenticeship Proper
6. synthesize the internship or apprenticeship experience through creative documentation.	Portfolio Development

Glossary

Art Processes – The techniques, methods, and procedures used to create an artwork, including designing, sketching, modeling, painting, sculpting, composing, and performing.

Apprenticeship – A structured training program in which learners gain hands on experience in a specific trade, craft, or profession under the guidance of an experienced mentor or practitioner.

Creative Arts Industry – The professional sector in which artistic works such as literature, music, theater, and visual arts are created, produced, distributed, and consumed.

Emergent Media Tools – New and evolving technologies, such as digital platforms, social media, and virtual reality, used in the creation, presentation, and distribution of literary and artistic works.

Internship – A supervised work-based learning experience that allows learners to gain practical experience related to their field of study.

Literary Analysis – The process of examining and interpreting the elements, techniques, and meanings of a literary work.

Literary Art Exhibition – A curated presentation or display of literary works, such as poems, stories, essays, or visual interpretations of literary texts, intended to engage audiences in reflection and interpretation.

Literary Genres – Categories of literature that share common forms, styles, or characteristics, such as fiction, nonfiction, poetry, and drama.

Literary Production – The processes involved in conceptualizing, developing, editing, and publishing literary works, often reflecting real world publishing practices.

Literary Project Proposal – A detailed plan outlining the objectives, structure, creative approach, timeline, resources, target audience, and scope of a literary project.

Literary Techniques – Methods used by writers to enhance literary works, including imagery, foreshadowing, flashbacks, symbolism, and narrative structure.

Multimedia Elements – Various forms of media, such as video, audio, images, and interactive digital content, used to enhance the presentation, interpretation, and audience engagement of literary and artistic works.

References:

Booth, W. C., Colomb, G. G., & Williams, J. M. (2008). The craft of research (3rd ed.). University of Chicago Press.

Bunn, M., & Wilson, K. (2015). The creative arts in the classroom: Developing artistic skills and competencies in education. Routledge.

Chandler, D. (2007). Semiotics: The basics (2nd ed.). Routledge.

Dewey, J. (1934). Art as experience. Perigree.

Elkins, J. (2001). Theories of art and education. Routledge.

Gombrich, E. H. (2000). The story of art (16th ed.). Phaidon Press.

- Jackson, T. (2004). Multimedia literacy: A guide for artists and educators. Oxford University Press.
- Kelly, J. R. (2007). Creative exhibition design: Theory and practice. Wiley-Blackwell.
- Noth, W. (1990). Handbook of semiotics. Indiana University Press.
- Parker, R. (2012). The arts in education: An introduction to the special issue. International Journal of Education & the Arts, 13(9).
<https://doi.org/10.18296/ijae.0005>
- Spiller, D. (2013). The creative industries: A critical introduction. Routledge.
- Wimmer, R. D., & Dominick, J. R. (2011). Mass media research: An introduction (9th ed.). Wadsworth Cengage Learning.