

ARTS APPRENTICESHIP (MEDIA ARTS)

ACADEMIC

Grade 12

Curriculum Guide

ARTS APPRENTICESHIP

(Media Arts)

Prerequisites: Filipino Identity Through the Arts, Leadership and Management in the Arts, Art Criticism and Creative Markets

Course Description:

The course an intensive period of acquiring, understanding, and developing proficiency in media arts through hands-on training in available art organizations, art centers, production houses, independent artists or designers, and community-based art or cultural groups. It aims to enrich the learners' knowledge and skills in media arts production with emphasis on artistic development, digital creativity, cultural awareness, and professional work ethics. Through apprenticeship experiences and guided media production practice, the learners develop creativity and technical proficiency in preparation for real-world applications in the creative media industry.

Elective: Academic

Time Allotment: 160 hours for one term

Content Standard:

- The learner demonstrates understanding of media arts production processes, professional practices, ethical standards, and industry engagement through apprenticeship experiences in media arts within creative industry settings.

Performance Standard:

- The learner demonstrates proficiency and professionalism in media arts production through apprenticeship activities and portfolio documentation, reflecting artistic, cultural, and ethical practices within the media arts industry.

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
The learners... 1. discuss media arts from the perspective of industry function and professional processes;	I. Media Arts and The Work Environment A. Review of media arts in the different creative industries domains B. Media arts and technology C. Narrative and visual storytelling in digital media D. Media arts as social commentary E. Role of the media artist in organizations and communities in the digital age F. Collaborative media production and industry networking G. Professional practice and entrepreneurial skills in media arts
2. articulate the professional roles and ethical practices of media artists in creative industry settings;	II. Professionalism and Ethics in Media Arts A. Professional practice in media arts production a. Standards and protocols in pre-production, production, and post-production b. Roles and responsibilities in collaborative media projects c. Documentation and workflow management in creative industries B. Ethical considerations in digital and media production a. Intellectual property rights and copyright law in media b. Representation, inclusivity, and cultural sensitivity in storytelling c. Truthfulness, transparency, and ethical editing practices C. Professional work ethics in media arts industries a. Integrity, accountability, and reliability in creative work b. Balancing artistic vision with organizational or industry standards c. Professional conduct in workplace and studio environments D. Client relations and commissioned media work

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
	a. Communication strategies, including proposals, contracts, and feedback loops b. Negotiating creative direction and managing revisions c. Building long-term professional relationships with clients E. Media production funding and project opportunities a. Sources of funding, such as grants, sponsorships, and partnerships b. Basics of project proposals, budgeting, and pitching ideas c. Apprenticeship pathways and networking in creative industries
3. evaluate the roles, responsibilities, and accountability of apprentices in media arts organizations; NOTE FOR IMPLEMENTATION: If the orientation and preparatory competencies are completed within the first weeks of the term, the learners may proceed to in-school or off-school apprenticeship activities, provided that proper supervision and safety guidelines are observed	III. Apprenticeship Orientation A. Roles and responsibilities of media arts apprentices B. Chain of accountability in apprenticeship settings C. Industry workplace expectations in media production D. Orientation prior to apprenticeship placement Note to the teacher: Conduct the orientation before the in-school or off-school apprenticeship.
4. demonstrate proficiency and professionalism in media arts tasks and workplace practices during apprenticeship; and	IV. Apprenticeship Proper
5. synthesize apprenticeship experiences through creative documentation.	V. Portfolio Development A. Nature of apprenticeship and creative or media arts portfolios a. Purpose and role of portfolios in apprenticeship programs b. Types of creative portfolios (print, digital, multimedia) c. Standards and expectations in media arts portfolio presentation B. Components of a professional portfolio

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
	a. Core creative works (e.g., films, scripts, designs, and photographs) b. Supporting documents (e.g., artist statements, CV, project, and briefs) c. Evidence of apprenticeship experiences (e.g., reflections, mentor feedback, and certifications) C. Portfolio design and presentation a. Visual organization and layout principles b. Digital platforms and tools for portfolio creation (e.g., websites, PDFs, and reels) D. Portfolio review and continuous improvement a. Self-assessment and reflective practice in portfolio development b. Peer and mentor critique processes c. Updating and curating portfolio content over time  Teachers may contextualize form, content, or mode of portfolio depending on learner's specific apprenticeship venue or environment. Contextualized forms may include, but not limited to: • demo reel - if apprenticed at a wedding video company, • digital or printed catalog for apprenticeships in graphic design firms • photo album for apprenticeships in wedding coverage companies as photographers • sketch book for apprenticeships in illustration or graphic arts studios

GLOSSARY:

Arts Apprenticeship – A system of training in which an aspiring artist learns and develops artistic skills under the guidance of a master artist or experienced practitioner.

Art Curation – The process of selecting, organizing, and presenting artworks to create a cohesive and meaningful experience for viewers. It involves developing narratives, encouraging interpretation, and enhancing audience engagement through the arrangement and presentation of artworks.

<https://eclecticgallery.co.uk/news/245-the-art-of-curation-creating-meaningful-and-cohesive-cultivating-artistry-the-transformative-role-of-curation/>

Media Arts – The study and practice of human communication through film, photography, video, audio, computer or digital arts, and interactive media.

<https://mn.gov/mnddc/asd-employment/pdf/09-MAC-DASP.pdf>

New Media – Forms of media that are computational and rely on digital technologies, computers, and the internet for creation, interaction, and distribution. Examples include computer animation, video games, interactive installations, websites, virtual worlds, and other digital platforms. New media are often distinguished from traditional media such as television, radio, print publications, and film.

<https://tesda.gov.ph/Downloadables/TR%20-%20Visual%20Graphic%20Design%20NC%20III.pdf>.

Traditional Arts – Artistic expressions rooted in cultural traditions and practices. In the Philippines, these include folk architecture, maritime transport, weaving, carving, folk performing arts, oral literature, folk graphic and plastic arts, ornaments, textile or fiber arts, pottery, and other forms of traditional cultural expression.

References:

Eclectic Gallery. n.d. "The Art of Curation: Creating Meaningful and Cohesive – Cultivating Artistry: The Transformative Role of Curation." Eclectic Gallery News. <https://eclecticgallery.co.uk/news/245-the-art-of-curation-creating-meaningful-and-cohesive-cultivating-artistry-the-transformative-role-of-curation/>.

Franz, Jill M. (2005) Arts-based research in design education. In Proceedings AQR Conference, Melbourne. Retrieved from <https://eprints.qut.edu.au/9106/1/9106.pdf>

Greenwood, Janinka. (2012). Arts-based research: Weaving magic and meaning.. 13.

Metropolitan Arts Council. 2009. Developing an Arts Strategy Project (DASP). Minnesota Governor's Council on Developmental Disabilities. <https://mn.gov/mnddc/asd-employment/pdf/09-MAC-DASP.pdf>.

McNiff, Shaun. 2008. "Art-Based Research." In Handbook of the Arts in Qualitative Research: Perspectives, Methodologies, Examples, and Issues, edited by J. Gary Knowles and Ardra L. Cole, 29–41. Thousand Oaks, CA: SAGE Publications, Inc. https://disabilitystudies.nl/sites/default/files/art-based_research.pdf.

Philippines. Technical Education and Skills Development Authority (TESDA). n.d. Training Regulations for Visual Graphic Design NC III. Taguig City: TESDA. <https://tesda.gov.ph/Downloadables/TR%20-%20Visual%20Graphic%20Design%20NC%20III.pdf>.