

ARTS APPRENTICESHIP (THEATRE ARTS)

ACADEMIC

Grade 12

Curriculum Guide

ARTS APPRENTICESHIP

(Theater Arts)

Prerequisites: Filipino Identity Through the Arts, Leadership and Management in the Arts, Performance Criticism and Creative Markets

Course Description:

This course provides an intensive period for acquiring, understanding, and developing proficiency in theater arts through hands-on training with theater organizations, arts entrepreneurs, relevant government offices, arts centers, production houses, independent artists, and community-based art or cultural groups. It aims to enrich the learner's skills in their chosen field while emphasizing Filipino artistic and cultural values, work ethics, and traditions, and contributing to the local and global creative theater industries.

Elective: Academic

Time Allotment: 160 hours per one term

Content Standard:

- The learners demonstrate understanding of the roles of theater artists, theater production processes, professional practices, and ethical standards through apprenticeship experiences within theater organizations and creative industry settings.

Performance Standard:

- The learners synthesize their apprenticeship experiences that reflect knowledge and skills in theater arts, emphasizing artistic, educational, cultural values, and work ethics through work performance and creative documentation.

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
The learners... 1. discuss the interdisciplinary roles and responsibilities of theater artists, the functions of art organizations, and the chain of accountability in the organization as an apprentices; 2. explain the work process involved in theater production and related performing arts field;	I. Organizational Structure and Roles in Theater Production A. Roles and responsibilities of theater artists and the chain of accountability in the theater organization B. Types and functions of theater organizations; and C. Processes and practices in theater productions and theater organizations.
3. practice safety and security procedures in the theater arts practice;	II. Organizational Requirements for Occupational Health and Safety in the Theater Industry A. Workplace and safety requirements B. Types of workplace hazards C. Nutrition for Theater Artists D. Anatomy for Theater Artists
4. analyze how professionalism, corporate social responsibility, and ethical practices are applied in the theater industry; NOTE FOR IMPLEMENTATION: If the orientation and preparatory competencies are completed within the first weeks of the term, the learners may proceed to in-school or off-school apprenticeship activities, provided that proper supervision, documentation, and safety procedures are observed.	III. Professionalism and Ethics in the theater industry A. Roles and responsibilities as a participant in a theater production and/or member of a theater organization B. Ethical practices in the theater industry C. Terms of reference and compensation.

LEARNING COMPETENCIES	CONTENT
5. demonstrate proficiency, professionalism, cultural sensitivity, and ethical practices under theater arts apprenticeship; and	IV. Theater Arts Apprenticeship Proper
6. synthesize the theater arts apprenticeship experience through creative documentation.	V. Portfolio Development

GLOSSARY:

Arts Apprenticeship – A system of training in which an aspiring artist learns and develops artistic skills under the guidance of a master artist or experienced practitioner.

Ethics in the Theater Industry – The moral principles, professional standards, and shared values that guide the behavior of individuals and organizations involved in theater production. These include respect for collaborators, integrity in artistic practice, responsibility toward audiences, and fair, safe, and lawful working conditions throughout all stages of production.

Occupational Health and Safety (OHS) in the Theater Industry – The policies, procedures, and practices that protect performers and production workers from accidents, injuries, and health risks during rehearsals, productions, and performances.

Professionalism in Theater – The consistent demonstration of responsibility, discipline, respect, and commitment by individuals involved in theater production. This includes punctuality, preparedness, ethical conduct, respect for collaborators and organizational structures, and adherence to high standards in performance and production work.

Rehearsal – A private practice session or performance conducted in preparation for a public presentation.

Theater Production – The process of creating and presenting a live performance through the integration of acting, design, and technical production elements to communicate a story or artistic concept on stage.

Theater Organization – A group or institution that plans, manages, and presents theater productions through the coordination of artistic, administrative, and technical functions.

REFERENCES:

Encyclopædia Britannica, inc. 2024. “Theatrical Production.” Last modified February 21, 2024.
<https://www.britannica.com/art/theatrical-production>.

Pearson Education. 2022. BTEC International Performing Arts Unit 1: Introduction to Performing and Production Arts: Delivery Guidance. London: Pearson. <https://qualifications.pearson.com/content/dam/pdf/btec-international-level-2/performing-arts/2022/teachingmaterials/unit-1-dg.pdf>.

Presser Arts Center. n.d. “Theatre Code of Ethics.” Accessed March 15, 2026. <https://www.presserpac.com/theatre-code-of-ethics>.

Sanders, Tal. 2020. “Organizational Structures.” In An Introduction to Technical Theatre. LibreTexts. Last modified September 24, 2020.
.

Theatrical. n.d. Code of Conduct. Accessed March 15, 2026. https://theatrical.com.au/docs/Code_of_Conduct.pdf.